FIELD AND DISSERTATION

Comparative Urban Policy and Administration

“Urban Autonomy Within the Unitary State: A Case Study of Public Housing Politics in Milan, Italy”

A case study of public housing policy in Milan, Italy, with emphasis on the local bureaucracy’s relationships with both the elected city administration and those central agencies (in Rome) relevant to this policy sector. The study is an exploratory attempt at examining a centralized system’s actual operation at the local level within a specific policy sector.
