

COMPARATIVE GOVERNANCE IN EUROPE:

A SYMPOSIUM IN HONOR OF ALBERTA SBRAGIA

Professor Alberta Sbragia of the University of Pittsburgh's Department of Political Science is a world-renowned scholar of European integration and one of the founders of EU Studies in the United States. To mark the retirement of our eminent colleague, this conference will bring together scholars, including colleagues and former students of Dr. Sbragia, to address and push forward her insights into understanding the EU from a comparative perspective and chart the impact of comparative regionalism and comparative federalism on the field of EU studies.
